DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-28 are pending and subject to restriction.

Election/Restriction

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

I. Claims 1-7 drawn to a process of producing oil by extracting oil from both the whole stillage in a wet distillers grains stream and the thin stillage stream, both streams containing oil, classified in Class 554, subclass 9, for example.

II. Claims 8-11 drawn to a process of producing oil by obtaining oil from a thin stillage stream dried to water content of less about 15 wt. % , classified in Class 426, subclass 31, for example.

III. Claims 12-28 drawn to a process of producing oil by removing at least a portion of the oil from one or more wet distiller grains stream, the dried distiller grains stream, the thin stillage stream or the syrup stream, classified in Class 435, subclass 161, for example.

Each of groups I through III is directed to a separate and distinct invention. The method of Group I is directed to a process of producing oil by extracting oil from both the whole stillage in a wet distillers grains stream and a thin stillage stream, both streams containing oil; the method of Group II is directed to a process of producing oil by obtaining oil from a thin stillage stream dried to a water content of less about 15 wt. % and the method of Group III is drawn to a process of producing oil by removing at least a portion of the oil from one or more wet distiller grains stream, the dried distiller grains stream, the thin stillage stream or the syrup stream. These methods are distinct both physically and functionally, require different process steps and produce products having distinct properties.

The several inventions above are independent and distinct, each from the other as they have acquired a separate status in the art and require independent searches, particularly with regard to the literature searches. Clearly, a reference which would anticipate one of the above groups would not necessarily anticipate or even make obvious any of the others.

An undue burden would ensue from the examination of multiple methods which have distinct steps and end points. Burden lies not only in the search of US Patents, but in the search for literature and foreign patents and examination of the claim language and specification for compliance with the statutes concerning new matter, distinctness and scope of enablement.

For these reasons restriction for examination purposes is proper.

Art Unit: 1651

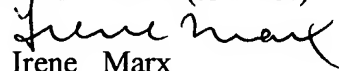

Applicant is advised that the response to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 C.F.R. § 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a diligently-filed petition under 37 C.F.R. § 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 C.F.R. § 1.17(h).
